MPC Women's Ministry Retreat Speaker
January 25, 2025

Margaret Kay Tucker is a graduate of Samford University, holding a B.S. in Education.

As a collegiate athlete and coach, she brought her passion for sports to her work as a high school Bible teacher, soccer coach, and tennis coach. Margaret's dedication to both faith and discipleship shines through in her role as a teacher.

She is married to Tyler and proud to be a mother to three grown children and two daughters-in-love. Since her teenage years, Margaret has shared her passion for Jesus and His Word, teaching others how the Gospel transforms hearts and lives. Her ministry takes her across the U.S. and abroad, helping people understand the sufficiency of Scripture in all things and for all things.
